Correction

• The story that ran Tuesday titled "Student services to be moved in building by French Ad." by Brooke McKenzie said "The 89,000-square-foot building cost $16.2 billion. and was paid for by the state general building fund, Smith said. It should have read, "The 89,000 -square-foot building cost $16.2 million, and was paid for by the state general building fund, Smith said." The Summer Evergreen regrets the error.

• On the photo that run on the front page of Tuesday's issue the person embracing Tom George was identified as "a fellow worker." The individual is Les Purce, vice president for extended university affairs. The Summer Evergreen regrets the error.
