

CAMPUS AND TOWN

Briefly

Museum to present basketry lecture

The Museum of Anthropology will present "South Central California Basketry: Methods and Myths," a lecture and slides by Geoffrey Gamble, chair of the department of Anthropology at 7 p.m. Thursday in Room 125 College Hall. Gamble spent 15 years working with the last of the Wickhamni basketmakers. The museum will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday for Mom's Weekend.

Mother-daughter themes in literature

Wilmer Hall will sponsor "Women in Literature" at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Scholarship Room of the Wilmer/Davis Dining Hall. Susanna Finnell, assistant director of the Honors Program, will talk about mother-daughter themes in poetry. A free continental breakfast will be provided. All are welcome.

Administration Road to be closed

Administration Road from Campus Avenue south to the Morrill Plaza will be closed to all traffic from 3 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday. This closure will allow a heavy lift crane to be assembled to remove some equipment from the roof of Murrow West and then be disassembled. For more information call Kaye Straight at 335-9000.

International Week happenings

The International Relations Committee will present Understanding Central America at 3:30 p.m. today in Room B17 CUB. Another International Week event will be International Women's Evening at 7 p.m. today in Room B11-13 CUB.

Cracking up in Butch's Den

The Mom's Weekend Comedy Show will open at 7 p.m. Friday in Butch's Den at the CUB. Admission is free. For information on performing, call 335-3503.

Spring fashion show on campus

The Black Awareness Committee will sponsor its annual fashion show at 8 p.m. Friday in the CUB Ballroom. Admission is free.

Travel Europe for little or nothing

Pullman Parks and Recreation will offer a class on low-cost European travel from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday in the Pullman City Hall's senior lounge. Registration fee is $5. The approach is called the "Untour Way" and encourages travel in the same manner as middle-class residents do in their own countries. For more information call 334-4555.

Stress lectures for students, faculty

Several university divisions are sponsoring an invited lecture by Donn O'Neil titled "Managing Stress — New Concepts in Survival" in three sessions Thursday in CUB Auditorium. Session I lasts from 9 to 11:30 a.m., session II from 2 to 4:30 p.m. and session III from 7 to 9:30 p.m. All sessions are free of charge and open to the public. Staff training release time is available by arrangement with supervisors.

Pow-wow planned in Oregon

The University of Oregon in Corvallis will hold its annual spring Pow-wow in honor of Native Americans this weekend. Craft tables will be set up at 2 p.m. Friday in the Memorial Union Ballroom. A free 5 p.m. dinner will feature Indian stew and fry bread. The Grand Entry traditional dance will be held at 7 p.m.

Making safe sex fun

A Safer Sex Workshop will be offered by the Whitman County health department, the Gay and Lesbian Association, the Sexual Information Referral Center, and Student Health at 7 p.m. today in Room 344 Todd Hall. Learn to protect yourself from HIV infection and to make safe sex fun. For more information call 335-9579.

Music in the park

Pullman Parks and Recreation is looking for music groups to participate in the summer's Music in the Park series. A different music group will perform from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday during June or July in Reaney Park. A stipend is available for interested music groups. For more information call 334-4555 ext. 225.

SIRC looking for new members

The Sexual Information Referral Center, a campus group that prompts responsible decision-making about sexual issues, is taking applications for 1989-90 members until the end of the school year. The SIRC office is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located in Room B52 CUB.

For all the campus chocolate lovers

The YMCA Chocolate Lover's Festival will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday at Pullman's Quality Inn. Tickets cost $6 per person or $10 per couple. Tickets are on sale at the west entrance of the CUB at noon or at the door.

Summer baby sitters needed

The YWCA of WSU is compiling a list of available baby sitters for the summer. A list of names, numbers and available times is provided to Pullman parents. If you'd like to make some extra summer money in Pullman call 335-3916 or stop by the second floor of the Koinonia House to fill out an application. The deadline is Monday.

YMCA wants program leaders

The YMCA at WSU is looking for students who are interested in learning leadership skills to fill positions as officers, directors and assistants for its service programs. Programs include Big Brothers and Sisters, Youth and Government, Prime Time, Public Relations, and International Friends. Training starts in September — call 335-3915 for information.

YWCA Chinook photos

All YWCA student officers, committee chairs, committee members and all other dedicated volunteers, including Advisory Board members should meet at 3:15 p.m. today in the YWCA office for a Chinook photograph.

Meetings scheduled

- The Entrepreneur Club will hold its last meeting of the year at 4 p.m. today in Room B11-13 CUB. Jerman Rose from the Small Business Administration will be the guest speaker.

- The Sociology Club will meet at noon Thursday in Room B17 CUB to hold officer elections and plan next semester's events.

- The Human Resources/Personnel Club will hold its last meeting at 6 p.m. today in Room 128 Todd Hall. John Lynn will talk about flexible benefit packages and information on fall activities will be discussed.

- The Finance Club will meet at 7 p.m. today in Room 202 to hold elections for next semester and to present a guest speaker.

- The newly formed Japanese Club will meet at 7 p.m. today in Room B7-9 CUB to hold elections.

- Rho Epsilon will sponsor Hams for Lunch, a weekly meeting for amateur radio enthusiasts, at noon today in Room 112 CUB.

- The ASWSU Environmental Task Force will meet at 5:15 p.m. today in Room B15 CUB.

- The Ad Club will meet at 7 p.m. today in Room B25-B CUB to hold elections for executive positions. Mike Erwert will talk about marketing of packaged goods.

- The Agribusiness/AgEcon Club will hold its last meeting of the year at 6 p.m. today at the WSU Beef Center for senior recognition.

- The Hort Club will meet at 7 p.m. today in Room 191 Johnson Hall to plan for the Mom's Weekend plant sale and the award banquet. Everyone is welcome.

- The ASWSU Hunger Awareness Committee will meet at noon today in Room 113 CUB to discuss the work of Church World Service and the upcoming C.R.O.P. walk.

- The YWCA Racial Justice Committee will meet at noon today in the Koinonia House.

- The Alpine Club will meet at 7 p.m. today in Room 212 CUB. Alan Hodgdon will present a slide show documenting his alleged attempt to climb Mt. Waddington.

- The Apparel Merchandising and Textiles Club will hold a mandatory meeting at 5:30 p.m. today in CUB Auditorium for all models, committee chairs and committee members.

- The ASWSU Entertainment Committee will hold its last meeting of the semester at 6:30 p.m. today on the CUB third floor.

Correction

From Tuesday's page one article about the blood drive: The Evergreen reporter was given faulty information. The sponsors of the drive are Rho Nu, WSU's nursing club, and the Spokane Blood Bank. Also, the traveling plaque will go to any living group, including residence halls, Greek houses and off-campus groups, that gets the most donors.

The drive continues today in the CUB ballroom.

THE FAR SIDE

By GARY LARSON

"Listen ... this party's a drag. But later on, Floyd, Warren and myself are going over to Farmer Brown's and slaughter some chickens."

CAMPUS AND TOWN

Briefly

Does your club or organization have a meeting or event? Then tell us.

Pick up your local brief form at Murrow Hall 113.