

Bruins at Golden Arches Big Mac and the enemy

Rumor has it that the UCLA Bruin football team will be visiting the Moscow McDonald's Friday night for a promotional stint.

Sources said the Los Angeles team will be hibernating in the Moscow Best Western Hotel for the evening and at about 10 p.m. they will make a pilgrimage to the restaurant.

If by chance you happen to be in the area, it might not be a bad idea to drop by and say "hello" to these famed fellows — from the inside waving out. I mean really, couldn't you picture 55-odd players and their coaching staff trying to cram inside a hamburger joint and their efforts being foiled by a myriad of crimson and gray holding the line — long?

At the same time, why not invite our band to show up for a circular parade around the place? Our fight song will never sound better.

After all the business WSU students have given McDonald's, it's a shame they have to send all the way to Hollywood to promote themselves when we would be more than happy to lend them our Cougs. What's the matter, Moscow — are you still upset that we won't play your Vandals again?

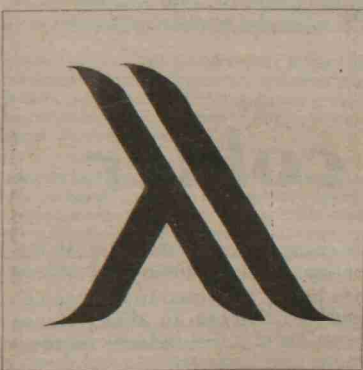

Regardless, the main point is — even if we can't beat the Bruins — let's join them...

Americans neither free nor brave: witness bigots, rednecks at WSU

In regard to last term's election in which your student body showed such incredible social awareness, responsibility and insight, the following are a few observations of one, who after one year at WSU chose to receive his education in a less rural situation than is yours.

1) Any homosexual, lesbian, or other oppressed person by now realizes that amerika (sic) and amerikans (sic) are neither free or brave. We live in a land of biggots (sic), Neo-facists, and cowards, hiding behind Naugahyde-bound gideon Bibles.

2) A person gets what he or she deserves when they choose to receive a second rate education in some God forsaken wheat field, surrounded by fraternity and sorority elitists (organizations which are, by definition, homosexual), junior brown shirts, and the shit-kicking progeny of red neck dirt farmers whose idea of detente is importing Coors to Washington.

3) Anyone who would consciously take away the rights and privileges of a group simply on the basis of personal dislike had best watch his/her back or transfer to some Jr. College in Sheep-Dip, Tennessee, where they can join the On Campus Cross Burning Club.

A closing thought for those who still feel superior in their heterosexuality (breeders, if you will). Dick Cavette (sic) once asked Truman Capote during a television interview "If homosexuals are 'gay', what do you call heterosexuals?" Mr. Capote replied, "Boring".

lics I said nothing because I wasn't a Catholic. When they came for me no one was left to say anything." (A prisoner of Buchenwald)
