"What I like about a Sella's Calzone"

by Arden, Brook, and Virginia Majors: Graduate Students in Environmental Science

Sellas Saves the Earth

Environmental Scientists
Oh how we love to hug trees
We want to help the fishies and clean up the seas.

But when we get hungry,
We get on the phone,
"Put on your Birks,
Come eat some Calzone!"

Down to Sellas as fast as the bikes will go
We begin grubbing, chanting more, more, mo.
Nourished and energized, we finish our bite
Sellas' calzone is helping us make sure Mother Earth is all right.

To all you creative thinkers out there...

"What do YOU think about Sella's Calzone?" Come down and enter into our contest. Weekly winners will be chosen to win a free meal and their picture in the Evergreen.
