Mike Jasper, co-manager of the Daily Grind Espresso and a senior in marketing, finishes up the final touches before the new store opens Wednesday.

Located in Adam's Mall, Jasper said the new store is in a great place because of the fraternities.

His mother, Charlene Jasper is the owner and co-manager.

One less submarine sandwich shop and one more espresso stop may change the feel of Adam's Mall after Wednesday, with the opening of the Daily Grind Espresso as a "hang-out," said the owner.

By opening a third store, Charlene Jasper will expand her business with both an added location and a different type of shop taking the place of Sam's Subs.

Unlike the two other Daily Grind shops in Pullman, the Adams Mall location is the first non-drive-through of the franchise. It will consist of a bagel bar, with bagels from the Bagel Co. of Moscow, salad options and a variety of soups.

Jasper's son and co-manager, Micheal Jasper, a WSU student, first suggested an espresso cart in the hall of Adams Mall. After negotiations, the decision was made and the Daily Grind Espresso is now going for its third franchise.

"This location will consist of couches, a television, a variety of magazines and study tables so the customers can feel free to come and hang-out," said Charlene Jasper. "We want you guys to have a place to relax with your friends or even watch your favorite soaps and feel at home."

The Daily Grind Espresso in Adams Mall will also sell Snapple and soda, along with quick snacks like muffins and cookies.

Jasper opened the original Daily Grind Espresso shop on Davis Way on the Pullman-Moscow Highway just over a year ago.

Since then, she has built a second store next to Denny's and the Holiday Express franchise, and she is now building a Daily Grind in Colfax.

The Daily Grind Espresso in Adams Mall will be open Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Weekend hours will depend on events taking place in Pullman.

"We will always be open until 9 p.m., but we may open earlier or later on weekends because we want to work with the customers' schedules," said Jasper.
